

WELCOME TO NANAIMO

Nanaimo Regional General Hospital

NRGH is a designated Acute Care Facility. It has 345 acute care beds, plus over 20 long-term care beds. The hospital acts as the primary care facility for the communities of Bowser, Cedar, Gabriola Island, Ladysmith, Lantzville, Nanaimo, Nanoose Bay, Parksville and Qualicum Beach.

NRGH is the designated regional referral hospital for communities north of Victoria, including Port Alberni, North Island, and the Island's west coast.

NANAIMO REGIONAL GENERAL HOSPITAL

The Nanaimo Department of Emergency Medicine is currently looking to hire emergency medicine physicians.

- Nanaimo Emergency Physicians Association provides emergency and trauma team leadership services
- Busiest emergency department on Vancouver Island with a new, state-of-the-art department
- Join a progressive, collegial group of 30+ emergency physicians in Nanaimo
- Our unique Proceduralist service also allows our ERPs the opportunity to expand procedural skills.
- ERPs get the opportunity to practice Emergency Medicine to its fullest potential
- Nanaimo emergency department is a referral center for the central Vancouver Island catchment area with an annual census of 70,000 patient visits and has back-up from all of major specialties
- Affiliation with the University of British Columbia's Island Medical Program provides teaching opportunities to medical students and residents.

JOB STATUS

- Flexible work opportunities available
- MetricAid for scheduling
- Flexible parental leave policy
- Flexible vacation scheduling
- Understanding and supportive group for family and life events

QUALIFICATIONS

Eligible for CPSBC licensure with:

- FRCPC, CCFP-EM, ABEM or USA Certified Class

REMUNERATION

Remuneration: Service Contract

Photo: BC Bird Trail/The Number Creative

Photo: Destination BC/
@glamouraspirit_

Photo: Harbour Air Seaplanes

Photo: BC Blrd Trail/ The Number Creative

Photo: Tourism Vancouver Island

THE COMMUNITY

Located on the eastern shore of Vancouver Island on the traditional territory of the Snuneymuxw, Snaw-naw-as, and Stzuminus people, Nanaimo is a vibrant community rich in history and culture. The city is home to approximately 100,000 residents, making it one of the largest urban centers on the island.

Nanaimo boasts a dynamic economy and a thriving arts scene, all set against the backdrop of its stunning waterfront and lush forests. This forward-thinking city places a strong emphasis on sustainability and community well-being, fostering an inclusive environment for all its residents.

Nestled between the picturesque waters of the Strait of Georgia and the surrounding mountain ranges, Nanaimo offers a diverse array of neighborhoods, outdoor adventures, and urban conveniences, making it one of the most desirable places to live on the west coast. It is also home to the famous Canadian dessert - the Nanaimo Bar.

Families have access to quality education through the Nanaimo-Ladysmith School District, along with various independent schools. For those pursuing higher education, Vancouver Island University provides a range of esteemed programs that contribute to the city's reputation as an educational hub.

Renowned for its breathtaking landscapes, outdoor recreational opportunities and connectivity to Vancouver and Victoria, Nanaimo perfectly combines urban living with the tranquility of nature, creating an enviable lifestyle for its residents.

STAY CONNECTED

Public transportation through BC Transit is available throughout the region.

Other transportation resources:

- BC Ferries
- Nanaimo Airport (YCD)
- Hullo Fast Ferry (Nanaimo- Vancouver) (passenger only ferry)
- Harbour Air Seaplanes/ SeaAir Seaplanes
- HeliJet

ACTIVITIES

Top activities to experience in Nanaimo

1. Leisurely stroll the Harbourfront Walkway
2. Saysutshun (Newcastle Island) Accessible by passenger-only ferry, this provincial park features hiking trails, picnic areas, and beaches, making it a great spot for outdoor activities and relaxation
3. The city has over 200 city parks including the oceanfront parks of Neck Point Park & Piper's Lagoon Park, Westwood Lake, Buttertubs Marsh.
4. Follow the Nanaimo Bar Trail and taste 35+ versions of the famous dessert bar.
5. Hit the local Mountain Bike Trails and bike parks. With over 60km of trails, there is a trail for every skill level.

We respectfully acknowledge the unceded and traditional territories of the Snuneymuxw, Snaw-naw-as, and Stzuminus people.

Contact us

Darsey Batchelor, Recruiter

darsey.batchelor@islandhealth.ca

250-216-0970

medicalstaff.islandhealth.ca